Filipina Fashion Designer dolldelight Returns to Pacific Media Expo 2012

LOS ANGELES, CA -- Filipina Asian street fashion designer dolldelight returns as an industry guest at Pacific Media Expo on November 9-11, 2012 at the LAX Hilton. dolldelight will be selling clothing and accessories at the Pacific Media Expo Artist Market throughout the convention. She is also scheduled for a panel and workshop with her fans, and a press conference.

Cyril Lumboy, the young designer known in the fashion world as dolldelight, is self-taught in the art of sewing and clothing design and has created a following around the world. Since her debut at PMX 2011, she has been featured at many festivals, events, and headlining Asian Street fashion shows all over the country.

"It's great to be back. My first appearance has opened a lot of opportunities and I can't wait to share more of my work!" Cyril said upon her return to PMX.

Cyril also reminds her fans that she has a fundraiser on Indiegogo (<http://www.indiegogo.com/doll-delight>) to help expand her brand for PMX and beyond until the end of September 2012.
