Visual Kei Rock Band Moon Stream to Appear at Pacific Media Expo 2012

LOS ANGELES, CA -- For the first time, Moon Stream will perform in Los Angeles at Pacific Media Expo 2012. Moon Stream will be in concert at Pacific Music Live 12 on Friday, November 9 and Saturday, November 10. Immediately following their concerts, Moon Stream will be available for autograph sessions, as well as a focus panel, photo sessions, and more throughout PMX 2012.

Satsuki (Rentrer en Soi) and Tomo Asaha (echostream, Voyage, and NIL) combined their musical talents to create Moon Stream in 2011. Satsuki launched a successful solo career after the disbandment of Rentrer en Soi, with the goal of exploring and expressing his musical talents in a more meaningful way. Tomo is currently playing with his New York-based electronic rock band echostream, where he has performed for the Bonnie Hunt Show with Shahidah Omar. Together, Satsuki's soulfully angelic voice and Tomo Asaha's underground New York style will prove to be an experience not to miss!

Thirty Moon Stream VIP Fan Bundles will be made available only to PMX attendees. The bundle includes admission to the VIP section for both concerts, VIP line access to both autograph sessions, special front row seating for panels, an exclusive private listening session, and a private meet-and-greet with the band.
