Billboard Charting Singer/Songwriter Ryan Stylez to Make a Special Appearance and Autograph Session at Pacific Media Expo 2012

LOS ANGELES, CA -- For one day only on Saturday, November 10th, singer/songwriter Ryan Stylez will make an appearance for Pacific Media Expo 2012 at the LAX Hilton. He will be participating a panel from 5 to 6 p.m. and will have a community table to promote his latest works. Come meet and take pictures with one of the West Coast's biggest rising Pop Stars and be one of the first to hear his new radio single featuring Ray J!

"We're so happy that Ryan Stylez is making in-roads on the Billboard charts. PMX is happy to support our young Asian American artists as they further their careers and follow their passions," says Paula Angeles, Pacific Media Expo's Director of Marketing.

Ryan Stylez is known for his song "This is the Life", a catchy, up-tempo, feel-good summer tune. The single went into rotation on Top 40 radio stations across the country, which landed the song at the 108 spot on the Billboard Top 200. The music video went viral, landing over 300,000 views in the last couple of months as well as placements on MTV, Fuse and online blogs. Ryan is also set to debut a new single featuring Ray J this fall.

Ryan decided to pursue music as a career in high school. In December of 2009, Ryan Collaborated with The Cataracs, who produced chart topping, records (Like a G6, Backseat etc.) and after the song "Right Here Right Now" released to iTunes and online in 2010, Ryan started receiving offers and partnerships with managers and labels and made headlines on various local radio stations, blogs and websites.

"Right Here Right Now" garnered attention from video game companies and created opportunities for new projects for Ryan. In February of 2012, Ryan moved to Hollywood, Calif., to begin working on his E.P. with the platinum-producing group The Co-Stars.
